

To FCCI support XM Radio for a few reasons. First I would rather pay and not have to listen to the endless 50% of the time commercials. Second I live in an area that is quite remote and the choice of stations is limited. Third competition is good for everyone, it makes us all better. Maybe the broadcasters could make their product better. XM is great, don't stifle it.